

CELESTIAL SIGHT

My Children,

I would give you a new freedom. I would open unto you new dimensions, new realities, new vistas, new horizons to see and to explore because you have allowed yourselves to open fully unto Me that I might show divine truths beyond the confines of that which is called “Christianity”. The old beckons and beckons still, not willing or wishing to let go their hold. The root of the Protestant is the Catholic and the hierarchy of the Catholic would still claim you. But I say, YOU ARE MINE! And I will claim you. I will take you where I must needs go.

The world of truth is much more than just Christianity. There were five races; each sent with their own way of worshiping; they were given their own prophets and holy men as I ordained unto Me ministers and disciples among them who became apostles; even so have I done among the five races; the five colors of mankind on earth.

Let your vision not be narrow but encompassing all; a much broader arena beckons you unto participation therewith. Will you release the past that you may embrace your own divine future? Will you free yourself of thoughts that you know “all” that you may comprehend the truth of the rest of the story?

I will open up new truths only to those faithful pioneers who trust Me implicitly to guide them aright. Those that will be stuck in religious doctrine and dogma and embrace not all of mankind and My Holy Spirit’s workings through them all will not be leaders of that which I will do, for their narrow-mindedness and pride in their knowledge to the exclusion of all who are not like them, saith the Lord who is The Creator of all the races and would unite all and reconcile all unto Myself.

Much to learn...Much to un-learn...Much to consider...Much to stop considering....The puzzle of the ages is to be put together for those who are willing to allow ME to lead.

JUDGE NOT, I say unto thee, for to do so is to cut yourself off from My stream of blessing and understanding and knowledge which is “Wisdom From Above”, hidden for Ages to be brought forth now. Seek to Me, saith thy God as you understand Me, and look to revelation coming forth to embrace it; to walk in it; to let it become in thee “CELESTIAL SIGHT”. Even so Amen.

10-21-03