

“Christ Consciousness”

In the beginning of Creation there was “Light”, and this Light dwelt alone. In this Light there was creating power by the spoken Word - “The LOGOS”. This was and is “God” as all people know Him; The Creator of all that is in universes beyond universes - all are creations of God or “The Eternal Light”; “The Original Light Bearer” comparable to our Sun; high above everything; alone generating life on the planets inhabited by creatures of His own creating. Over them all He watches - The Universal Consciousness - The Universal and Cosmic Mind by which all that is governed or destroyed at the will of The Creator if it displeases Him, so He creates again in another form. “Try it all over, O man. You failed last time.”

Wherein we are vicious we suffer the viciousness of others next time. This is known as “karma” or “reaping what ye have sown”. And these are both religious principles but many are stumbling and choking on what they call “New Age” theology which they were told to beware of.

Now in my class I would explain some eccentricities away by getting my fold of students to relax and do some meditation without feeling like there’s been a mistake, “this is wrong - it’s not like I’ve been taught”. We know this, says your Patient Guide. Would ye learn or no? I warn you that there are some things you must un-learn if you would be successful in the classes of The Eternal Mind through which I am speaking. So get it right this time and that’s what I’m here for; to give you a new way of understanding everything so it all makes sense at last.

I your Teacher admit that I am nothing but one absorbed by that Universal Consciousness and so speaking by That Spirit which is HOLY as one of the Seven Spirits of God before His Throne. Because of this I am a worthy Teacher, having been found so by The Eternal and sent to teach you His true way. And many stumble because of the semantics not being similar so I would like to clear up discrepancies in people’s understandings and send it forth.

The Prince Michael standeth up for his people Israel, and understand that he is FOR you and not against you elevating himself. If you won’t listen so as to learn, meaning sincerely, humbling yourself before your God as you understand Him, then who can you blame but yourself when you found that you lost your Golden Ray opportunity for divinity to replace your humanity which is faulty and weak. Saying this as a man which I am, as well as you. We are all the same.

So let us begin without condemnation or criticalness over what I am saying; just open up your heart and let truth in, that’s all I ask. And the truth will set you free if you’ll receive it and do more with it than putting it in the jar of memory, never planting it where it can do you the most good. For your good is all I, your Teacher have in mind.

From the Grace that is given unto me as a wise master-builder I would lay a foundation in you which is “Jesus Christ and Him crucified” with every respect paid to His Sacrifice, showing I am not deceitful but speak as if in riddle to those who don’t really want to understand or catch the plan of The Eternal. Most won’t go to Him, but some have allowed Him to live within, and He speaks and works through them; Him getting the glory and them trying their best to stay out of the Lime-Light which is such a distraction to the people of God.

I will say as the angel John fell before to worship - DO IT NOT, for I am but a fellow servant operating in my place with God in order to help; in order to teach those who walk in spirit and work for the betterment of all. We are hidden candles, but our work shall succeed for The Father makes it so, and however weak we may appear, despise not the words that we speak for they are HIS and not ours;
WORSHIP GOD!

Now that I’ve explained “God” in a way that I believe all can understand and agree with, let us get down to the basics, for His Body is universal with many people a part of it; those who work and will in unison with Him by Spirit. These are the members of that unified Body manifesting on Earth at this time and in prior ages and there’s a need for more to come and cooperate with Him.

So the message calling all who would hear from the highways and by ways seeking for encouragement and reality in your life. We your Spirit Teacher call you to arise and be counted, not by any local assembly or label for the battle is IN SPIRIT and not in outward life. You were given a body to live in by your parents, but your soul and spirit are old. You've been here many times and find yourself here again. So what will you do? Live for yourself? Or would you seek a higher glory by offering yourself unto your God's service to be of service to everyone else? What would you choose to do with this life Our Creator, The Great Spirit gave you in this time and in this place? For each time you've come you had to choose. And where you wouldn't choose commitmently, you chose participatingly and your state was finally fixed with what you chose.

So we've all been "party animals" at one time or another. Among humans there are none to bless and all to blame, eternally so. But The Father - The Creator would have you live to know Him and not die without Him to begin your search over again with a brand new set of circumstances to work through.

However you choose The Lord our God is a gentleman. He will give you your choice even if it is hurtful to you and you cry in remorse. But do not think there's nothing more for you or me or us all to do but claim what is not ours by supposed "rights" because somebody else said so. The Lord Himself chooses who goes to His Heaven and no man can decide it for Him. The life is either allowed in because of the likeness to His Image or cast out because it isn't.

"Outer Darkness" therefore is that place or state far off from Him where man knows nothing of His warmth or His caring or His Light which He sheds abroad upon all; the just and the unjust and also His rain, which itself is a blessing though man has begun looking at all things as coming by chance.

Believe what you want if it suits you. I am not here to twist your arm; but to call out to you in love - The Love of your Father, of which you perhaps are familiar and know that it is written that in the last days there would be teachers chosen by our Master who were after His own heart; from His own fold; trustworthy Sons to gather His fold, yet call none of them ours, but HIS.

Now to you who will to listen I speak, and not to those who've already decided I am a fool or a charlatan, for to you who so think I am and will be a barbarian, speaking hearsay. You do not have any will to understand. So go your own way I say and leave the class alone, for some are meant to hear The Spirit's Call, and for these I have come and do speak. And I bid that you will hear me and look upon what I speak as being inspired by The Great Holy Spirit who I am one with, having accepted Him inside.

You believed in Jesus, who was also a human, but He asked that you know no man - not even Him - after their fleshly appearance, but by their heart, and by that all is measured; and deception and illusion governs the rest. So have what you will in this life and beyond. Every man will reap just what he sowed down to the last farthing, says the Lord.

And now if you will accept me, consider me a present day apostle and my teachings a "living epistle" from our Father's own heart. For much I have to say about Him to you so that you may cooperate in such a way as to be beneficial to all, including yourself. I am not trying to win popularity contests. They are for the frivolous and worldly caring, whom I despise by not going that way and neither should you. I am blunt because I have to be, not because I am a "smart ass"; a talking mule. I am simply a spirit Teacher calling all to come up higher and to not linger longer on the primal plane of life. Seek to rise higher in your plane of vibration for higher is indeed better; inexplicably so.

Shall we move further? So much ground to cover! I hope you're ready to listen awhile. For those many things Jesus had to say to His disciples which they could not bear at the time must come forth now by Revelation and Prophecy - The Two faithful Testimonies of Jesus of which you can be sure that you have Him and not just another scam or cult. For I ask for no following but would give My God all honor and glory for everything in my life. I am like you. I have also lived here, and still do. I have found as did John who wrote Revelation that the best way to serve Him is to give up unto Him in completeness so as to let Him live and move and have His being through you to the helping of many. How else could you serve? Not by the might of men, as in armies of soldiers; nor by the fleshly "knowledge about" as learned through expensive seminaries, but by The Holy Spirit and Power from God.

He knew not all would be as fortunate as you America, to have so much blessing that you were never in want. You have all things of technology by which you could do all things to abolish hunger and disease, but you squander all your resources and acknowledge not the God who made you by your laws. And because you reject Him all the while proclaiming that you love Him He must reject you so He can make you over into something more humble; something more caring ; something that will be a blessing around the whole world instead of a curse and a stench as at this day.

I will not speak to please you but to speak to you what HE says, to show you what is to come and to make you realize what must be done in order to spare as many of you brothers and sisters of the family of man from great loss. Grasp onto The Real; The True; The Rock of Gibraltar; whatever you call Him. He's reading hearts and intents and not trying to make all "Christians". It goes much deeper than that. Yea, so much deeper.

So open your hearts. I am nothing, but like you I love The Creator and sat gazing up into the vast universe trying to find The Maker of All. "The I AM" showed up; what a shock! And He told me to tell you that He loves you; all of you, of every race and religion and He would call you to come unto Himself and to offer yourself if you're willing to as Jesus did with the body He was given as an example for us to also do.

The haughty religious would have us do according to their "method", their dogma and their structure. And so much has been done that fell apart. Would you work and walk by spirit? If so, let us begin.....

Thousands of miles am I from the pen writing these my words to you. I speak by The Spirit even as The Holy Spirit leads. I am an "in Spirit Teacher" and speak to teach by telepathic thought, and thus I am useful to God in speaking to teach even as Jesus did and His apostles who also spoke and wrote by Spirit. And so I say, Fear not me. I am not going to harm you. Rather I'm hoping many will heed this voice crying in the wilderness of men's hearts who need to come higher and to immerse deeper in the eternal things of God. And that's my only focus. So hear me when I speak. For those who do shall come to see and experience for themselves that I spoke the truth to heal them and not to mislead them, and only if you trust me can I teach you.

It's all so new; but look at young people; see how eager they are to learn new things. They know they still need to as learning is the ALL of young people's lives. Learning to connect; learning to divide; learning to cope; learning to hope for a bright future when nothing but "chaos" has been left for them to inherit. No wonder they're distant and aloof as if you or we don't even know them. Something solid must be guiding them from within; something trustworthy. They did not come to just live and die in selfishness.

So all under the sound of this my voice crying in the wilderness; I offer you this little piece of advice. It must be by Spirit; you must learn to flow in and by Spirit, else a many headed body talking nonsense you become. For all say they have the answers yet you are all still looking and wandering so obviously you haven't found what you're looking for.

There's so much more that you need to walk through, and so I give you this piece of advice as a brother concerned for your welfare; not asking for money but for your collective energies in Spirit to help the greater cause of all mankind and stop trying to decide who's right or wrong by fallible human thinking. Get in Spirit! For there is your prize.

You are way behind Christians, for you keep waiting for The Messiah Figure to come and do, and ye have not put Christ on yourselves that He could be in you, nor you in Him to make that ONE necessary to save even yourselves. And that is the truth if ever I've spoke it, and by The Holy Spirit I can't lie as once I could, showing that I too am human, but offering up this mortal heart and life. I've gotten in touch with The Immortal and bring forth only His fruit in the life. And I would that you would join me and not stand off selfishly, suspecting me until you lose your life.

"Interrupts" are a good thing though they appear otherwise. They make us to re-examine our lives, and hopefully make changes for the better instead of broken resolutions like at New Year's while drunken as we so often do. It's about change and moving higher from the selfish to the selfless and then we'll love our neighbor as ourselves. You see it isn't working; there's more internal hatred than ever and no more godly fear before our eyes. We stand amiss before our God's Judgmental Arm. Trouble is coming and I'd really like to see you all survive. I didn't suffer these nightmares for nothing. Tribulation is coming before all our eyes. Now you can be "the shocked victim" totally amazed and horrified Or you can seek to get yourselves, as many as will, to join in the operation of "community" and "teamwork" via Spirit so that The Collective Consciousness that is can add you to it's strength of good will towards the planet else evil will eat up all your lives as it has priorly. Whoever is in the sound of my voice in Spirit can hear it for themselves if they but try with an open and honest and sincere heart to be a blessing more so than just play-acting, there will be enough good will in Spirit pressing against the darkness that hounds us all our lives.

The Lord says, Awake! That means that many are sleeping or in stupor are staring blankly, not knowing what to do. And so I come as a mercy to you, hoping you'll join us who are willing well to all in conscious awareness so that we may not suffer as one a much greater loss. For claims aren't everything. And many have only claims.

The testimony of Jesus Christ is the spirit of prophecy. And prophecy comes to warn so as to alter harmful behaviors so as to not reap such judgments as are pronounced. You can read this in your Bibles if you try. Take Jonah for instance. He was told to go to warn Nineveh who had never heard of Jesus in their life. He was not to teach them dogma nor to try to indoctrinate their life. What he was to do was to warn them as a watchman sent by The Throne to warn the people so that they might escape the wrath to come by humbling their hearts and minds. Jonah thought to escape by another way, taking a ship to Tarshish and God showed him that just wasn't going to fly. So he went to "Whale Academy" which humbled him to repentance and he went to Nineveh with his will still unsubdued. And with mercilessness in his heart, he wanted to see destruction for his reputation's sake as God's Prophet. He did not want to see those humbled lives. And so he sat outside the city to see what would become of it.

From the king on down the orders were given that all the land and people and even the cattle were to fast and repent themselves before God so that He would turn away this judgment pronounced against Nineveh and The Lord had mercy on them by their cries. Nineveh was spared by quick actions taken, and Jonah was embittered for the rest of his life. He would have rather seen destruction than lose his reputation, so see who he cared about all his life. And understand that "prophecy" is something for to warn of impending danger, whether it be through visions or through written or spoken word.

But Friends, prophecies of judgment are flying through the heavens of our lives and no one is listening; no one's repenting, and so our claims of rightness this lack of action belies. We are to offer our bodies as living sacrifices, meaning give up Self, doing our own thing so as to do as HE asks. Not quarrel over doctrine as to which is best by the natural mind.

Jesus is here for you who seek Him, desirous to live and move and have His Immortal Being in your cleansed vessel so that by Spirit working through many attuned vessels to avert the disasters coming which will take many lives. Another "bottle-neck" like the flood was upon human evolvment so that many; yea most all were lost.

So get into consciousness and examine the rules I gave you and begin to make time for this in your lives. Surely you will know the difference quickly between this and what you practiced before. One alive and active and the other dead and torpid.

I say it's time for a change so students arise and bond with your Holy Shepherd as you deem Him to be, but in The One Great Spirit we must come to be active in good willing if any will survive the coming Earth changes. So I am your friend and fellow brother Michael, and I am only wanting and needing to help others who want to try to join The Collective Consciousness which attempts to push man forward so he don't die. Despite all my efforts many will die, and there's nothing I can do except ask you to join with me and others who are not caught up in the religion of the religion so as to have un-open eyes.

Jesus is here by Holy Spirit awaiting a ride on the foal of an ass; yea, an ass's colt. Don't you therefore understand He wants us all to be involved in this and not just be "incredulous spectators" clapping for miracles performed? One could as easily find a good magic show. I would speak sense to you and open your eyes; you who care about your fellow men and you healers dedicated to the services of healing, your expertise in caring is needed in the realm of "Collective Conscious awareness" else we're all just fighting for ourself and too bad for others, cause they died. "We win!" We win!" I ask you -win what? It was an hard thing for Noah and his family who had relied on structure all their life to start again from nothing and learn to do it all for themselves with nobody to help them. And no foreseeable helping hands for decades to come till babies were born and grew up sufficiently so as to know how to be of help and assistance in a brand new life, for the waters of the Flood took everything and cleansed the planet of everything defiled. Surely we face the same, and we all know and feel it but we don't want to face our demise, so to prepare to help bring the solution. Do you think it a victory to Jesus to lose so many lives who know not their right hand from their left hand; who know nothing about how to survive?

Everything is linked to Spirit. It's what we all have in common; blood is next in that line. So, we must come to be "born of or into Spirit" by hearing about such possibilities and acting on it like "born-again Christians try. They say, Ye must be baptized and receive Jesus The Messiah Figure or "Christ" into your life. This is true, because without accepting Him in there cannot be forgiveness in your life. So as Jesus was baptized by John, so are we taught to be baptized. But Jesus baptized not. For He brought about a New Baptism - The Baptism of The Holy Ghost and Fire. This, my friends, is "born of Spirit". "And if this mind be in you"which mind? "For we have the mind of Christ" or Christ-Mind or "Consciousness" which is in partnership with The Creator, working His works and by His will for and in our lives.

Seek for the coming to abide of Emanuel in you. There is the "Life more abundant". There is the "prospering", and not in materialism. "Walk by Spirit" we were told, and we would not be subject to the lusts of our flesh. If we have not this Christ-consciousness; this Spirit Holy active in our lives we are not His, no matter what our profession or our good works. And I am given grace whereby I might teach it to some who have or are entering "Spirit" or "consciousness" for the first time.

If you waste your time debating over what I'm saying you'll lose your try. So I say TASTE, and see if I'm lying. Go to God in askings to be lifted into Spirit, even The Christ or Messiah mind of obedience unto His Father The Creator so as to become a helper or a healer unto mankind. Believe me, we're going to need as many as possible to work together by Spirit means. And by such miles make no difference for telepathic contact is instantaneous and precise. Jesus moved by Spirit but it takes all of Self life offered up with your good-will towards all mankind, and not just "your kind". We are a "global community".

Please, haven't we all seen quite enough of prejudice and pride? Is the world not worth our trying to provide support and balance for the imbalance of other's lives? We will need medical persons who can heal by Spirit means, for the old way of life will be a thing of the past. A new Day is dawning; yes, let's all rejoice, yet consider what else it means. It means separation from our lives of luxury and self-absorption. It means change is coming and much devastation in all our lives collectively, and we won't have insurance to bail us out. It's an "Act of God" that is to happen. And even the insurance companies won't survive.

So sleep on ye who don't care about anyone but yourself. I'll see you again the next time around, attempting to guide you by Spirit in a new life, hopefully lived better than this one. But my call is to those who have their spiritual ears open to win the prize of a high calling through Jesus Christ's propitiation to save all our lives. So you can think I disrespect Him if you please. I am only a servant and an instrument He uses to spare as many as will listen and not believe lies. But I say YOU disrespect Him by not living by His example in your lives. Selah and Amen, says the Teacher, "Michael".
